What is Going On Tonight.

Obsequies for the late Mrs. J. O. O. P. at 8:07 Main street.
Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association meets in St. Joseph's hall, Jackson street.

Continuing the avalanche that had started in Windham, the Bulletin went to press Wednesday morning, all republican candidates were swept into office by the greatest majorities ever polled in this old town. The average majority was 534 this figure being bolstered up by the votes of the women who turned out in large numbers to do their duty. It was a big reversal of the vote of 1916 when democratic candidates swept the town with an average plurality of 125.

It had been predicted that Windham would be among the last towns in this state to announce a complete vote, but this did not prove true and at shortly after 1 o'clock Moderator Frank P. Fenton announced the result of the ballot. The work of the eight counters and the fact that only a small per cent. split their tickets, there being in fact two hundred loss splits Tuesday, the voting doubled than in the last election when but 1200 votes were cast. The complete vote for the town of Windham follows:

President, Warren G. Harding, r. 2415; James H. Cox, d. 1324; governor, Edward J. Lako, r. 2347; Rollin U. Tyler, d. 1888; lieutenant governor, Charles A. Templeton, r. 2430; Ernest O. Wagner, r. 1876; secretary of state, Donald J. Warner, r. 2407; Fannie Dixon Welch, d. 1836; treasurer, G. Harold Gilpatrick, r. 2410; Emil Marzano, d. 1829; comptroller, Harvey P. Bissett, r. 2415; Albert J. Walsh, d. 1823; United States senator, Frank B. Brandegee, r. 2343; Augustine Longenecker, d. 1894; representatives in congress, Richard P. Freeman, r. 1830; Thomas R. Murray, d. 1844; state senator, Charles H. Blake, r. 2405; Charles H. Williams, d. 1823; judge of probate, Otto B. Robinson, r. (Windham) 2413, (Scotland) 122; James P. Twomey, d. (Windham) 1860. (Scotland) 30; representatives, Frank M. Smith, r. 2380; William J. Jordan, r. 2410; Alexis Caisse, d. 1831; John L. McCarthy, d. 1855; justices of the peace, William A. Arnold, r. 2422; Curtis Dean, r. 2432; Frank H. Foss, r. 2422; Isaac H. Johnson, r. 2422; George E. Hinman, r. 2422; William A. King, r. 2422; George S. Elliott, r. 2422; George Hatch, r. 2422; George Patton, r. 2422; George M. Graves, r. 2422; Samuel B. Harvey, d. 1845; Patrick J. Danahy, d. 1844; Thomas J. Kelley, d. 1847; E. Frank Dugless, d. 1847; William G. Backus, d. 1845; Horatius Dion, d. 1846; Arthur T. Kelley, d. 1843; Robert E. Mitchell, d. 1847; Arthur Rasicot, d. 1846; Almon J. Martinneap, d. 1846.

The breaking of a high tension wire somewhere outside caused this city and others on the circuit to be in the dark for about fifteen minutes Wednesday morning. The break affected the entire lighting system of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company and came just after Moderator Frank P. Fenton had finished the work of sealing the balloting boxes.

Engine Company No. 1 answered two calls Tuesday, the first being for a brush fire in the hill section of High street. A woman had called the firemen by telephone, thinking her property in danger of fire because of a brush burning nearby. The woman in the adjoining property assured the firemen that there was no danger and after some little rain had fallen on the brush the danger was declared ended. Later in the night they responded to another telephone alarm and upon arriving at the intersection of Natchaug and Ash streets found that an electric wire had been blown down by the winds and there was danger of fire as the wire was a "live" one. The wire was soon fixed so that it could no longer be a danger.

The next meeting of the Willimantic Women's club is to be held on Tuesday, November 15 at the club rooms on Main street and an attractive program has been arranged. Ernest Harold Baynes is to give an address on Our Wild Animal Neighbors.

Thomas D. Kelley and Miss Laura Caisse, both of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's church, by the pastor, Rev. J. Papillon. The nuptial mass was also sung by Rev. Father Papillon. The witnesses were Joseph Caisse, father of the bride, and Ferdinand Jolly. Following the service at the church a breakfast was served at the home of the bride, No. 22 Jackson street, for thirty guests attending. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley left for New York on their honeymoon trip on the 12:28 express. Mr. Kelley is employed by the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company and his bride has been in the employ of the American Thread company of this city.

Miss Ida Brander of Regina, Saskatchewan, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grimes, of "Maryknoll," Pleasant Valley.

Miss Margarette Cotter has returned from New York where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grimes. The remainder of the morning session consisted of three addresses, Children's World Crusade, by Miss Evelyn Cranaka of Greenburg, What of the Future? by Mrs. W. W. Payne of New London, and Our Task, by Mrs. J. B. Kent of Putnam. Miss Inez Peters of this city rendered several solos. Following this part of the program a general discussion was held until dinner was served at noon by the women of the Good Cheer circle. The afternoon session began at 1:30 o'clock with an organ prelude and a prayer service. The address of the afternoon was given by Rev. W. L. Ferguson, D. of M., of Andover, Mass. He gave a fine description of the mission work in that country. Following the regular communion service the session closed with prayer by Rev. A. D. Carpenter.

Judge Gardner Greene occupied the bench at the session of the Windham county superior court held in this city Wednesday. Testimony in the civil suit of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company against Isaac Kirman, a dealer in farm lands, whose home is in South Scituate, R. I., was given. The plaintiff alleged that Kirman had made arrangements to purchase from Kirman a farm located three miles north of Moosup, formerly owned by Nelson Chatelet of that place. With Kirman he had seen the place and had been building the farm, Kirman pointing out the boundaries of the farm. The purchase price was set at $7000. Kirman paid down $1000 with the understanding that the balance was to be paid in installments. Kirman agreed to accept a mortgage of $1000. He and Kirman were to meet at the place on the following Monday but Kirman did not appear and has not given him back his money. Much of the land pointed out did not belong to the farm as Kirman had stated. Kirman has since been sold to Kirman. Kirman denied the assertions of Kirman, and said that he had an interpreter present at the time of the transaction. He could not keep his appointment with Kirman during the following week due to Kirman's illness. Kirman for the defense was given by John Hill, the interpreter in question.

Judge Greene reserved his decision. Shortly before 1 o'clock the court was adjourned. It will convene today (Thursday) at 10 o'clock when the case of Katherine Foley vs. the city of Willimantic will be heard. The case is expected to last for two days.

men were about equal in getting out their vote but the women deserve the credit of getting out a big vote with only a few weeks in which to prepare their campaign.

At the last regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of St. Joseph's hospital it was voted to purchase another sewing machine so that the voluntary service of the Red Cross might be utilized to best advantage. Thursday, Nov. 18, has been designated as Donation Day by the society and on this date all friends of the society and St. Joseph's hospital will be allowed to make gifts of jelly, canned fruits, vegetables, marmalade, or any other goodie that would be useful to the patients at the hospital. Last year Donation Day met with approval and many donations of goodie were received and the patients cheered by the kind thoughts of those who were enjoying good health. The society members believe that the response this year will be as great as in the past.

The semi-annual meeting of the Eastern Conference of the American Baptist Foreign Mission was held at the First Baptist church in this city Wednesday morning and afternoon. About one hundred delegates attended, representing Norwich Mystic, Danielson, South Willington, Thompson, Stonington, New London, Waterford and Willimantic. The morning session began at 10 o'clock with a devotion by Rev. A. D. Carpenter, pastor of the local church. Miss Ada Bowen of this city welcomed the delegates. Reports of the officers were then read and the afternoon session consisted of three addresses, Children's World Crusade, by Miss Evelyn Cranaka of Greenburg, What of the Future? by Mrs. W. W. Davis Theatre
"Everybody's Sweetheart" is the alluring title of the last Olive Thomas production at the Davis theatre Friday and Saturday. This beautiful star reaches new emotional heights and offers a characterization that stamps her as one of the leading luminaries of the screen.

In the first part of the picture Miss Thomas appears as a young girl who is an inmate of a County Poor Farm. In spite of the fact that she is absolutely alone in the world and would have every reason to be discontented with her lot, she appears to be the most cheerful of all people and fairly radiates happiness. This unflinching good nature causes her to be endowed with the title "Everybody's Sweetheart."

Mary is in love with John. A poor boy on the farm. One day the two accompanied by an old soldier known as "Carroll," run away from the "Poor Farm." Circumstances bring them to the home of General Bingham, a wealthy, retired soldier. The General thinks he sees in Mary a striking resemblance to his dead son and adopts her. Mary returns to stay without John, so he is given work as a gardener.

When the General later decides to publicly announce Mary as his granddaughter and heiress, a startling incident occurs that entirely changes the situation and Mary once more becomes a little "nobody." In spite of this, the story, which is by John Lynch, is a happy culmination and one that is both satisfactory and logical.

Note:—This is the latest picture Miss Thomas made before her tragic death. Other features of the picture are the heavyweight champion of the world in the million dollar serial "Daredevil Jack," Taming Wild Birds, educational features, the Primrose, and a happy ending, completes the show.

THE SHOW.

Lifting Shadows, the Leonore Parnell feature that brings Emmy Wehlen to the Strand theatre Friday and Saturday, is a story of intrigue—a great country gone mad; of flaming passions; of deep, burning hatred; of eternal love. The picture is a happy native land—Russia—and sought safety in the United States. She married an American, thereby gaining the rights of an American citizen. Don't fail to see this picture.

The second feature is Irma Harpoon in The Daughter of Devil Dan. You'll see one of the most sensational falls depicted in a picture in some time when Irma Harpoon, a beautiful blonde, is a steep cliff to the rocks beneath. It's a graphic bit of sensation that will thrill everyone who views it. Freshened with an all star cast, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Napoleon and Sally comedy. Strand says so.

BRIEF THEATRE.

Louise Glauco, called by her admirers the Orchid of the Screen, never appeared to better advantage than in her new vehicle, The Leopard Woman, which is scheduled to appear at the Strand theatre Friday and Saturday. The picture is the auspices of the Associated Producers at the Strand theatre today, Friday and Saturday. According to advice from the metropolitan critics who viewed the screen version of Warner Bros. White's "pet novel" prior to its official release. And for this considerable credit is generously given by the star to her chief climacteric, Charles Starob, who has effected some exquisite portrait lightings for the close-ups which punctuate the dramatic action of The Leopard Woman.

Charlie Chaplin will also be seen in The Immigrant, a Chaplin classic, and the Ford educational will complete the bill.

Funny voices are given away at all matinee performances.

Baltimore, Nov. 3.—Residence rolling up a majority of more than 50,000 for Harding and Coolidge yesterday, Maryland changed radically the personnel of its delegation in congress.

As One Raised From Dead Stomach Pains Gone

Eaton's Made Him Well

"After suffering ten long months with stomach pains, I have taken Eaton's and am now without any pain whatever. An old man raised from the dead," writes A. Peredid. Thousands of stomach sufferers report wonderful relief. Their trouble is too much acidity, a gas which Eaton's quickly takes up and carries off, restoring the stomach to a healthy, active condition. Always carry a few Eaton's, take one after eating, food will digest well—you will feel fine. Big box costs only a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.
